Mr. S. C. Moore of Macon, Ga., left Sunday morning for his home. During his short stay he has made many friends. He is a gentleman of character, and is a first-class insurance man.

Supt. of Education Wightman was here several days last week. Friend Wightman is a great fellow and we will wager that he can out talk any man in the two counties.

Killian Harmon has a contract for the manner. Mr. Harmon carried a force of hands from here.

It is reported that the rural route inspectors has made a favorable report in regard to putting a route from this office. We are entitled to such and in establishing this route the department is simply doing justice.

Clerk of Court Sam George of Lexington was in town Thursday on legal business. Mr. George has many friends among us, who are always glad to see him.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. F. B. Gunter.

A runaway team caused considerable excitement on the streets late Saturday afternoon. Strange how people can move about under such circumstances.

If you need a pen or pencil tablet made of good quality paper and well bound with fancy covers that will not come to pieces at 5 and 10 cents, call at The Advocate office. Our line is superior to many of higher prices.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by F. B. Gunter.

We are glad to see Misses Carrie and Lillian Smith back at the old home, after having a successful session in the respective schools. We are willing for our young ladies and young men to leave us for awhile, but they must heartily be way when their schools close.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Crouch were here on Thursday. Mr. Crouch was representing the Senterfeit heirs in the land case. He is one of the brightest young men in the state and has many friends here, who watch his career with pleasure.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more we give One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for cough. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. Gunter's drug store.

The primary election for Sheriff of Saluda county, came off last Saturday and was a very tame affair indeed, about half of the usual vote being polled. We have endeavored to secure the returns from each precinct, but could not. As will be seen from the total vote, which is as follows: Rhodes, 247; Edgell, 243; Blaise, 229; Holly, 203; Banks, 183; Coleman, 78.

The second race narrows down between Edgell and Rhodes. We know nothing against Mr. Rhodes, but having known Mr. Edgell quite awhile and in every respect, he is qualified for the duties of the office. We shall devoutly hope for his success. The people should turn out and vote. It is not only a white man's prerogative, but a duty to elect his ballot.

The Rev. Edward Thomson, L. L. D., an eloquent lawyer, preacher, of Atlanta, will deliver his very fine lecture on the above subject. Dr. Thomson is an orator and will not fail to both entertain and instruct those who hear him. His presentation of his subject is masterful and convincing. Every one in the town and country around about, should not fail to hear him. The lecture is free and everybody is invited to come. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock Friday night, April 5th.

Night was Her Terror. "It would goad nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. Our contest is to see who can make the large list of names (or kinds) of birds from the following list of letters: W D O O C C Q L I A P T R A I D E S P N I E V B R D I M W A D O H T L. We will recognize any bird belonging to the feathered tribe, whether it be a Hen, Crow, Slinger or any other kind. You can win any letter as many times as you wish. It appears in the list of letters above for instance Woodcock, Plover, Snow Bird, &c. To any person who can make a list of 25 or more different names of birds, we will give him the $200. BIG PRIZES AWARDED DAILY.

When you have made out your list fill out the line on the bottom of this ad, and send to us with Stamped, Addressed envelope, then if you are awarded a prize by becoming a subscriber to The Women's World, we shall award a prize to every who sends the name of 25 Birds, and our gift will be as follows: For the best list received each day, a Gold Watch; for the second best solution each day a Imported Tea Set; for the seven best solutions, each day a Korih-Sakih Diamond and Ruby watch; and for all other correct solutions, Prizes of Good Value. These prizes will be forwarded daily until you have won a prize. In long time in uncertainty before you know the result. There is no element of loss in our plan, it makes no difference whether you are doing well or not early in the day. All you need is a mail (postage free) this ad to us, and on the day it reaches us, if your list is the best, you get the Gold Watch or Tea Set, and so on. We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford to. We want to get 1,000,000 well satisfied subscribers, and for that reason we don't want you to send any money until you know exactly what price you have gained by answering the puzzle. As soon as after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the lists to the best of their ability, and will designate the prizes. We will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded you, then if you are fully satisfied you will send your subscription to The Women's World and your prize will go by return of post carefully packed. To a person of narrow ideas it seems impossible that we should be able to make such a gigantic offer but we have the money, brains and reputation, we know exactly what we are doing, and if we are legitimately gain a million subscribers by this grand idea, we know that this million will be pleased subscribers and be induced to read our paper. If we will to our friends thereby building up our circulation still further. We are willing to spend $25,000 in this contest. It is building up a big subscription list, and when this money is spent we reserve the right to publish a notification that the contest has been discontinued. Don't delay until it is too late. The contest will continue until July 1st, 1901.
